Malaysia's health spending: who pays and what it buys

RM100 billion

RM1500 per person in 2024

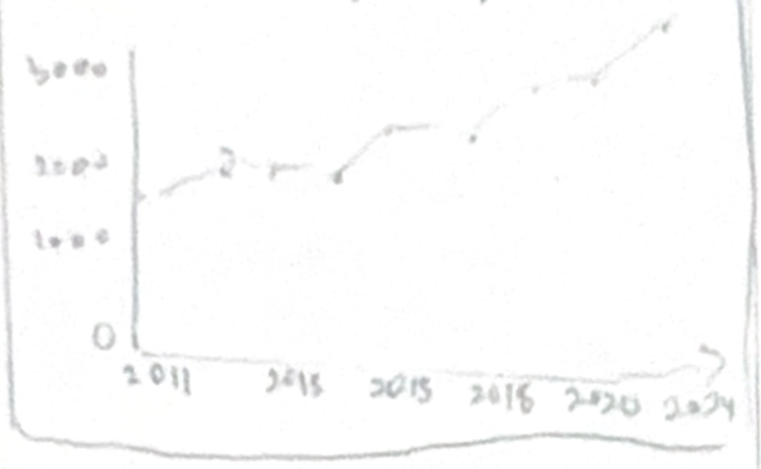

39% paid by households

Part 1 The bill keeps growing

Spendings doubled from 2011-2024

+113% rise per person

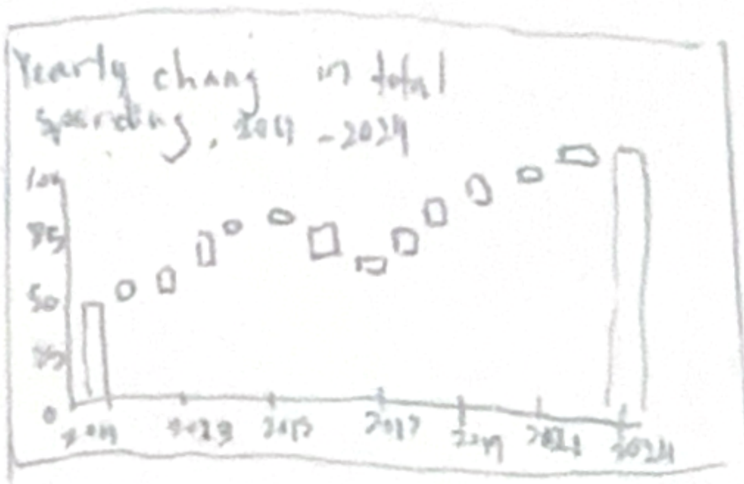

Health spending per person

Rising in spendings in the norm

RM 6 billion added past 2 years

Yearly change in total spending, 2011-2024

Health Spending Rises every year

Part 2: Who pays the bills?

Who pays for healthcare?

RM35 billion paid by families

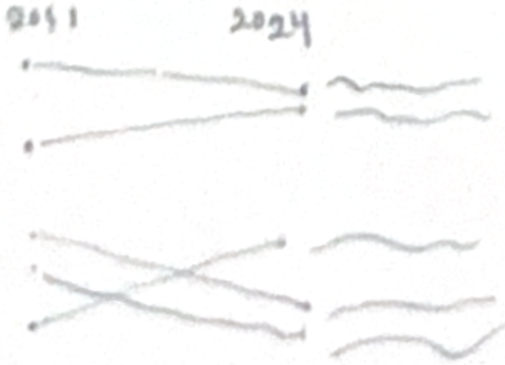

Who paid for healthcare, 2024

The bill is shifting

+7% change to families

Share of health spending

Families now pay almost 40% of the bill

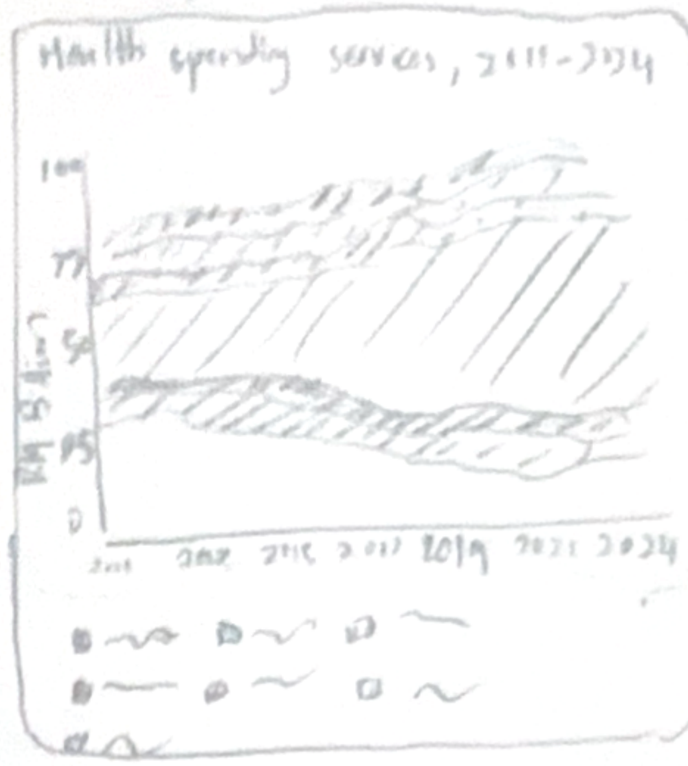

Next page →

→ Part 3: What does money buy

Are we paying to treat illness? or others

5,6 billion spent on prevention

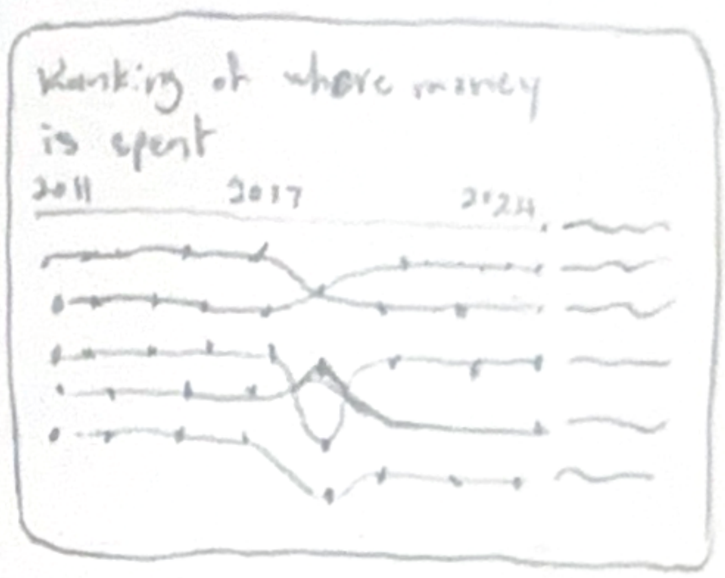

Health spending sources, 2011-2024

Most still happen at the same place

+300% rise in sector X

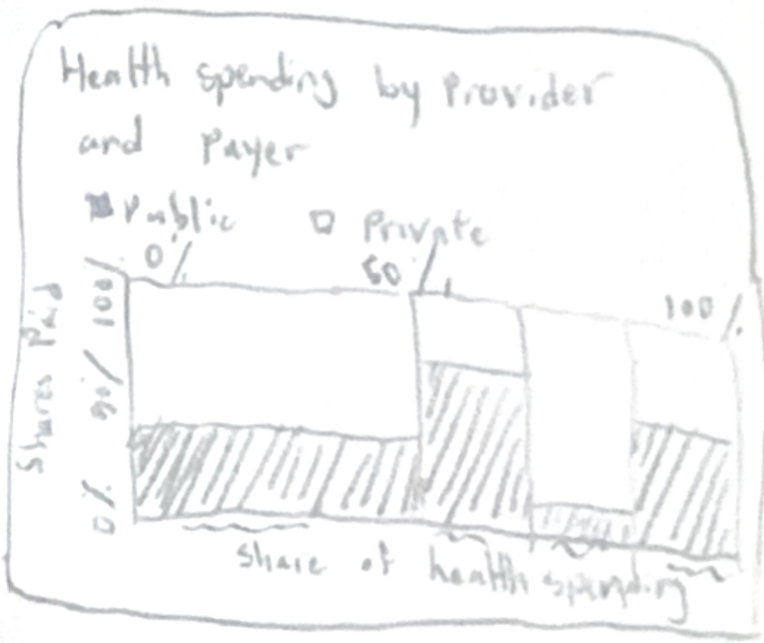

Ranking of where money is spent

Where you get care decides who pays only 6% paid by government in pharmacy

Health spending by Provider and Payer

Private care spending

RM15 billion paid by household

Household spending in private care

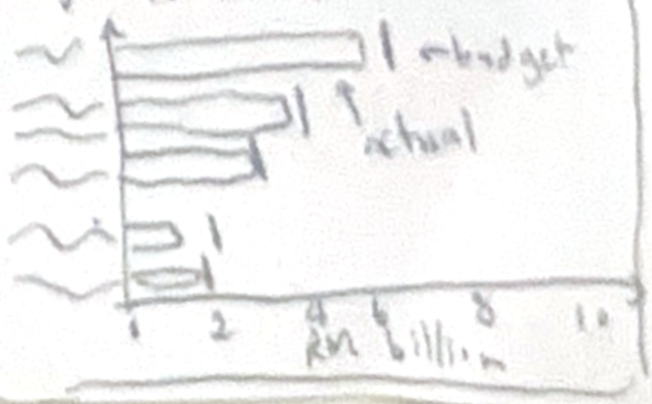

Most money treats illness after it starts, and families pay most at hospitals

Part 4: The government's spendings

Does MOH spend what it plans?

RM 300 million unused

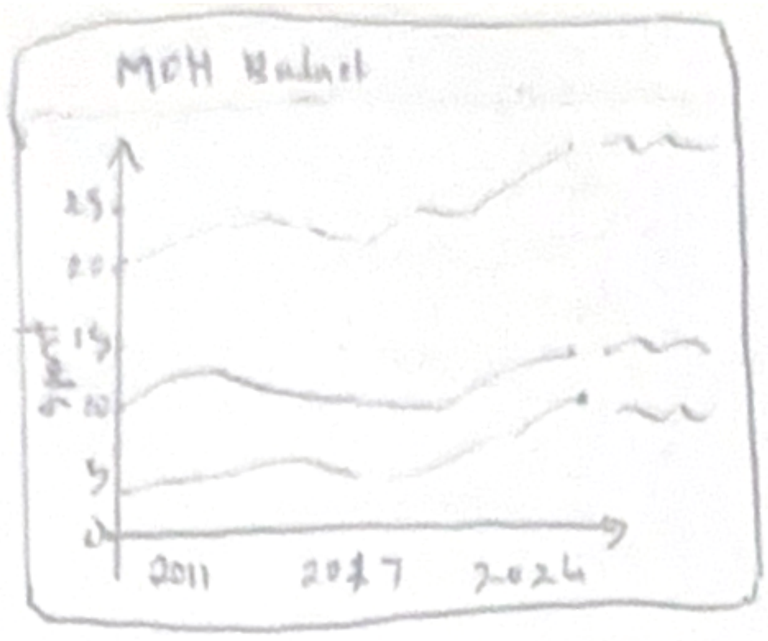

Budget vs actual

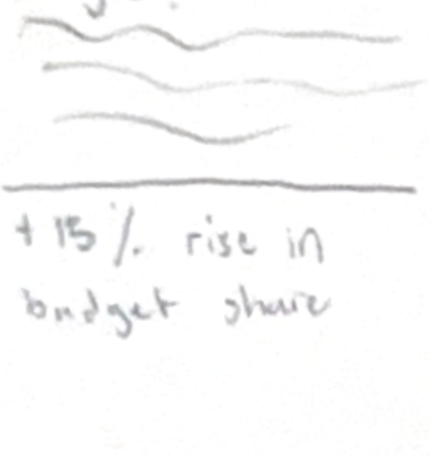

Healthcare is mostly people

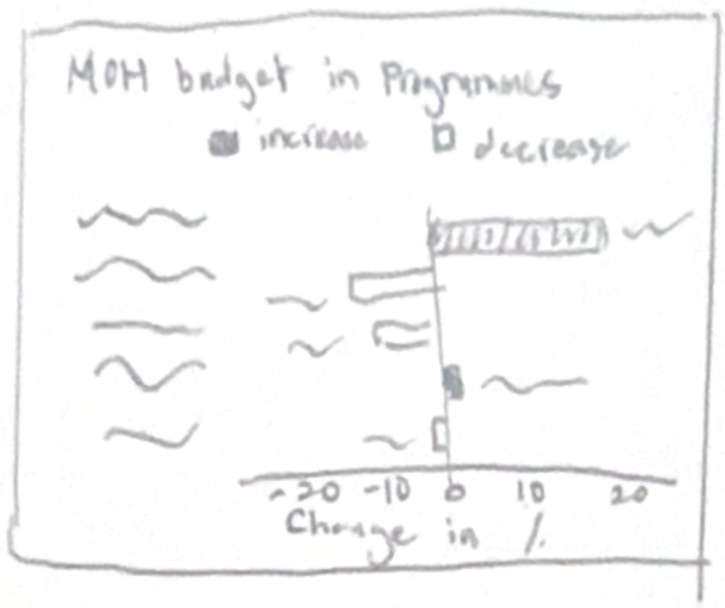

53% spent on salaries

Have their priorities changed?

+15% rise in budget share

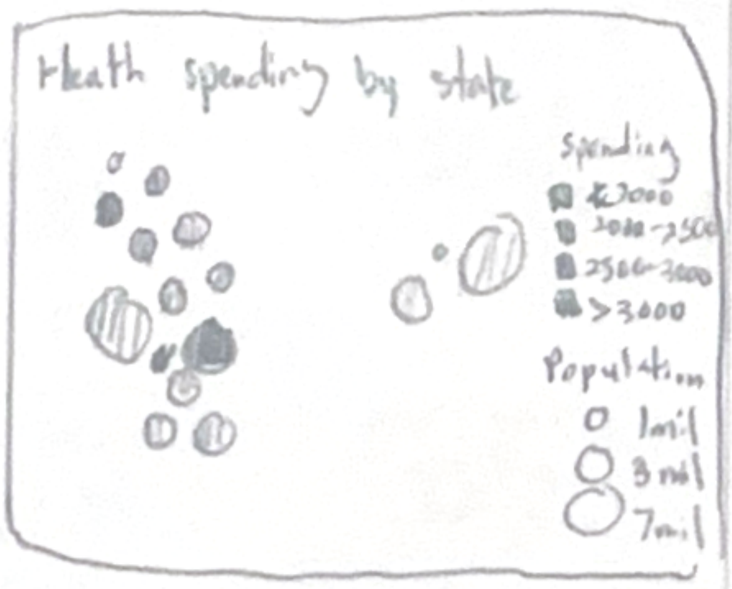

The ministry spends what it plans, but less and less goes to medicine

Part 5: Does the money reach every state?

Does every state get a fair share?

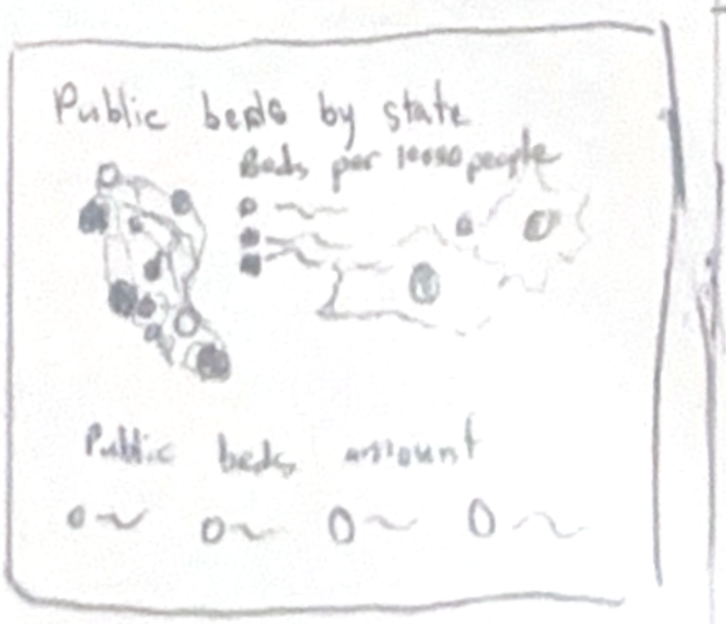

RM1690, per person in Sabah, the lowest

Does everyone have enough capacity?

only 10.8 beds per 1000 vs 15 average

Growth was uneven among states

>100% for Kuala Lumpur

How does Malaysia compare in ASEAN?

7th of 11th in 2024

Where you live shapes the care you receive

Conclusion:
Families pay more and the pay is shifting

